

Packing list of New Mexico trip:

Packing List:

Backpack: used to carry digital camera, art supplies and other things at Ghost Ranch - Very Important!

Hats: warm and sunhat - baseball cap is fine

Jackets (2 is enough): medium-weight or light fleece-like outer-jacket/coat and a rain jacket/coat, which can be a wind breaker or rain poncho

Gloves (fingerless is OK) and a scarf (optional)

Shoes (2 Pair): lightweight hiking boots or heavy duty tennis/workout shoes -

Very Important!

A pair of shoes to wear to the dinning hall and around in the evening

Please, Flippy Floppies are NOT recommended due to the terrain. Sandals are okay as long as the majority of the foot is covered

Socks and underwear of course

Jeans/long pants 3-4 pairs

T-shirts/Long shirts 3-4 pairs

Sweatshirt of light wool sweater

Toiletries and any other personal items needed

WATER BOTTLE - VERY IMPORTANT!

Extra Stuff (optional):

Flashlight

Ghost Ranch provides linens, pillows, and blankets (sleeping bags are optional)

Binoculars (if you have them)

Reading material

Personal music device (iPod, iPad, iPhone, Walkman...)

It is okay for students to have some extra spending money. Keep in mind this is an all-inclusive trip. However, there will be times for shopping and to purchase souvenirs and gifts, especially when we do our day trips to Taos and Santa Fe.